

Church Recording Society

All Saints, Tilford

Findings of interest so far include:

- An altar cross given in thanks for those who survived the First World War
- A memorial in the Arts and Crafts style to George Thomas Nicholson who bought the Waverley Abbey estate in 1832 and his wife Annie who was Florence Nightingale's aunt

- William Joseph Anderson window

He scored the winning goal in the 1881 FA Cup. He worked for some years as a cattle rancher in Montana and was one of the posse who arrested Butch Cassidy in 1892

- A Vestry Minute Book dating from the C18

A handwritten notebook containing minutes of Vestry Meetings at All Saints from when the church was opened in 1867 and 192

